

Discussion Questions for Sunday, March 1, 2015

1. Review how Christians are to suffer for Christ: Expect (receive) it. Rejoice (exult) in it. Endure it. Entrust your soul to God.
2. Discuss the unbearable destiny of Christ-rejectors and 2 Thess. 1:5-10.
3. Interact with the following in light of 1 Peter 4:17-18: It is better to suffer as a Christian now for a little while, than to suffer as a Christ-rejector later for eternity. You will either suffer for your Savior here, or suffer for your sin there.
4. True or False/Agree or Disagree, and Why? "To be ready for persecution when it comes, you must live a righteous/God-pleasing life now."
5. What details struck you in the story of Genesius' mocking of Christ and his subsequent conversion?
6. Visit persecution.com or icommittoprayer.com and spend some time praying for the persecuted church
