

Discussion Questions for 10/12/2014

1. What impacted you the most from Sunday's sermon?
2. When do you find it most difficult to submit to your employer?
3. Discuss how someone can show submission to their employer especially in a difficult work environment.
4. We often only think of missionaries and pastors as being called to the ministry. In what ways is a Christian employee called to the ministry in their place of work? What type of an attitude shift would need to take place to fulfill this calling?
5. What advice or encouragement would you give to someone who is going into the work force regarding employee/employer relationships?
6. Pray for those in your group who are part of the work force and subject to their employers. Pray that they would represent Christ well with a heart attitude of submission showing honor through their actions.
