1 Timothy 6:17-19 The True Treasure in Life

Opening Question

1. Who is the most generous person that you know? What is it about them that makes them generous? Is it something that is broadly known or is this person's generosity less well known?

Study Questions

Read 1 Timothy 6:17-19

2. What does Paul believe that the rich are doing wrong? Is this something that we struggle with today?
3. How does Paul encourage the rich to live differently? Do you think that this is harder for a rich person than for a person of average income?
4. What is the result of that change to being more generous? Why would being generous result in that outcome?

Application

5. How can you be more generous in your life? Don't just think about being generous from a financial standpoint, but consider it from all aspects of life. How can your community group be more generous as a group?
