2 Samuel 13:1-22 The Sins of the Father

Opening Question

1. Have you seen the impact that sexual abuse can have on a person or a family? How did people seek to address it? Was it brushed under the rug? Was counseling sought?

Study Questions

Read 2 Samuel 13:1-22

2. Would you agree that Amnon was “in love” with Tamar? Why do you think that humans struggle so much with understanding romantic love?
3. What part of what Amnon did to Tamar that makes you the angriest?
4. We see the reaction of two important people in this story. What do you make of how they responded to what happened? Why do you think that they responded that way?

Application

5. The subject matter of sexual assault is very traumatic for those who have suffered from it or for those that love someone who has suffered from it. Take the time to specifically pray for victims and seek to find ways that we can help to prevent further abuse.
