

Sermon Notes: “Reflection” Ecclesiastes 11:7–10

Pastor Dan Thomson
September 13, 2020

- I. Ecclesiastes 11:7
 - A. Light Illuminates our Senses
 - B. Light Illuminates our Minds
 - 1. Romans 12:12
 - C. Light Illuminates our Biblical Understanding
 - D. Light Illuminates Eternity
 - 1. John 3:19-20

- II. Ecclesiastes 11:8–10
 - A. There is good to enjoy in life, but we just don't have to make it the ultimate thing
 - B. The days of darkness will be plenty... Christ has overcome our strongest adversary already
 - C. 1 Corinthians 15:55-58
 - D. Death will have its day, but we need not fear it
 - E. “Aimless indulgence leads to endless misery”

III. Conclusion

- A. Pursue wisdom
- B. Sometimes wisdom is waiting, and sometimes it's acting
- C. Our days will be evil, so pray
- D. Trust that God is in control
- E. Struggle will come, but serve faithfully with joy and rejoice in God's promises