

The Mentored Ministry Covenant

required in the Reading for Orders Curriculum

The calling into a mentoring relationship is a deep and intentional step for student and mentor. Your signatures on this statement of intent indicate your voluntary and wholehearted commitment to the objectives and guidelines of the Mentored Ministry program in the Gulf Atlantic Diocese. The basic points of commitment are as follows:

Mentor Commitment

As a mentor in the Gulf Atlantic Diocese's Mentored Ministry program I agree, by the grace of God, to commit myself to the following:

- To provide a model of consistent Christian life and ministry.
- To cultivate my student's growth by the sharing of any experiences, ministry opportunities, and other God-given resources.
- To meet with my student at least 10 hours per semester for personal mentoring.
- To pray for my student's growth and development as a Christian leader.
