

COLOSSIANS

CAPTIVATED BY CHRIST

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Colossians

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

1:2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ that are at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father. 1:3 We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, 1:4 Having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have toward all the saints, 1:5 because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel, 1:6 which is come unto you; even as this gospel in all the world bearing fruit and increasing, as it doth in you also, since the day ye heard, and knew the grace of God in truth; 1:7 even as ye learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow-labourer, who is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf, 1:8 who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit. 1:9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray and make request for you, that ye may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and “If it falls your lot to be a street sweeper, sweep streets like Michelangelo painted pictures, sweep streets like Beethoven composed music, sweep streets like Shakespeare wrote poetry. Sweep streets so well that all the hosts of heaven and earth will have to pause and say: Here lived a great street sweeper who swept his job well.”
