

Are Your Investments Sound?

Haggai

Main Idea: Human selfishness adulterates kingdom investing

Three investment principles we learn from Haggai...

1. Poor investments show themselves (vv. 1:1-11).
 2. Bad investment strategies must be corrected (vv. 1:12-15).
 3. Sound investments prove themselves in their returns (vv. 2:1-23).
1. Poor investments show themselves (vv. 1:1-11).
 - a. There are no private investments before God.
 - b. Our lives reveal what is important to us.
 - c. God is pleased to bless those who are faithful with little.
 - d. God desires that our priorities be His priorities.
