

HCA Nut Policy

No peanut butter or obvious nut products may be brought to Holden Christian Academy at any time. Out of loving concern for our increasing number of highly allergic students for whom these products are life threatening we are strengthening our policy. If a nut product is inadvertently brought to school, it will be confiscated and an alternative will be provided.

On behalf of the entire HCA staff, we thank you for your cooperation in regard to this matter.

God Bless!