

Friends Helping Friends Find & Follow Jesus

John 1:35-51

▶ Jesus takes _____

Notes:

▶ Jesus invites you to _____

Notes:

▶ Jesus _____ those who honestly _____ him

▷ You will _____ and _____ Jesus

▷ Jesus will _____

▷ Jesus will _____ through _____

Application Questions

Note: These questions are recommendations. You don't need to answer all of them and you may include some of your own questions

1. If you are a Christian, whom did God use to introduce you to Jesus? Who stands out in your mind and made the greatest impact on you? Briefly explain.

2. Do you know someone who you thought would never become a Christian but then they did? (Is that person you?) How does this shape your understanding of Jesus? Explain. How did it affect your understanding of Christianity? What theology and/or verses come to mind that support your understanding?

3. In what ways can Christians be the best argument for Christianity? In what ways can they be the best argument against Christianity? What has been your experience? How does this shape how you speak the truth of Christ in love?

4. What were some of your motives when you started seeking Jesus? How has God refined your motives as you started to really getting to know Jesus and what he's all about?

5. How have you grown in your understanding that Jesus himself is our great reward? Is this a reward we earned? Why or why not? How has this affected your love for Jesus?

6. In what ways has it been difficult for you to set aside your own agenda and follow Jesus? How has Jesus and the Gospel helped you with that? How is Jesus changing you?

7. Is it easy or difficult for you to have friends who are not Christians? If all of your friends are Christians do you think that is a good thing? Why or why not? How is God using you to say "Come and see"—come and meet Jesus? How is God using you to share the Gospel with people? How is he using you to bring them into his community of grace—the Church? How can you grow in this? What will you do this week?

8. In light of this discussion, how can we pray for you? Pray for each other.