

DISCIPLE

MATURING IN FAITH WITH TIMOTHY

Setting the Pace - 1 Timothy 4:11-15

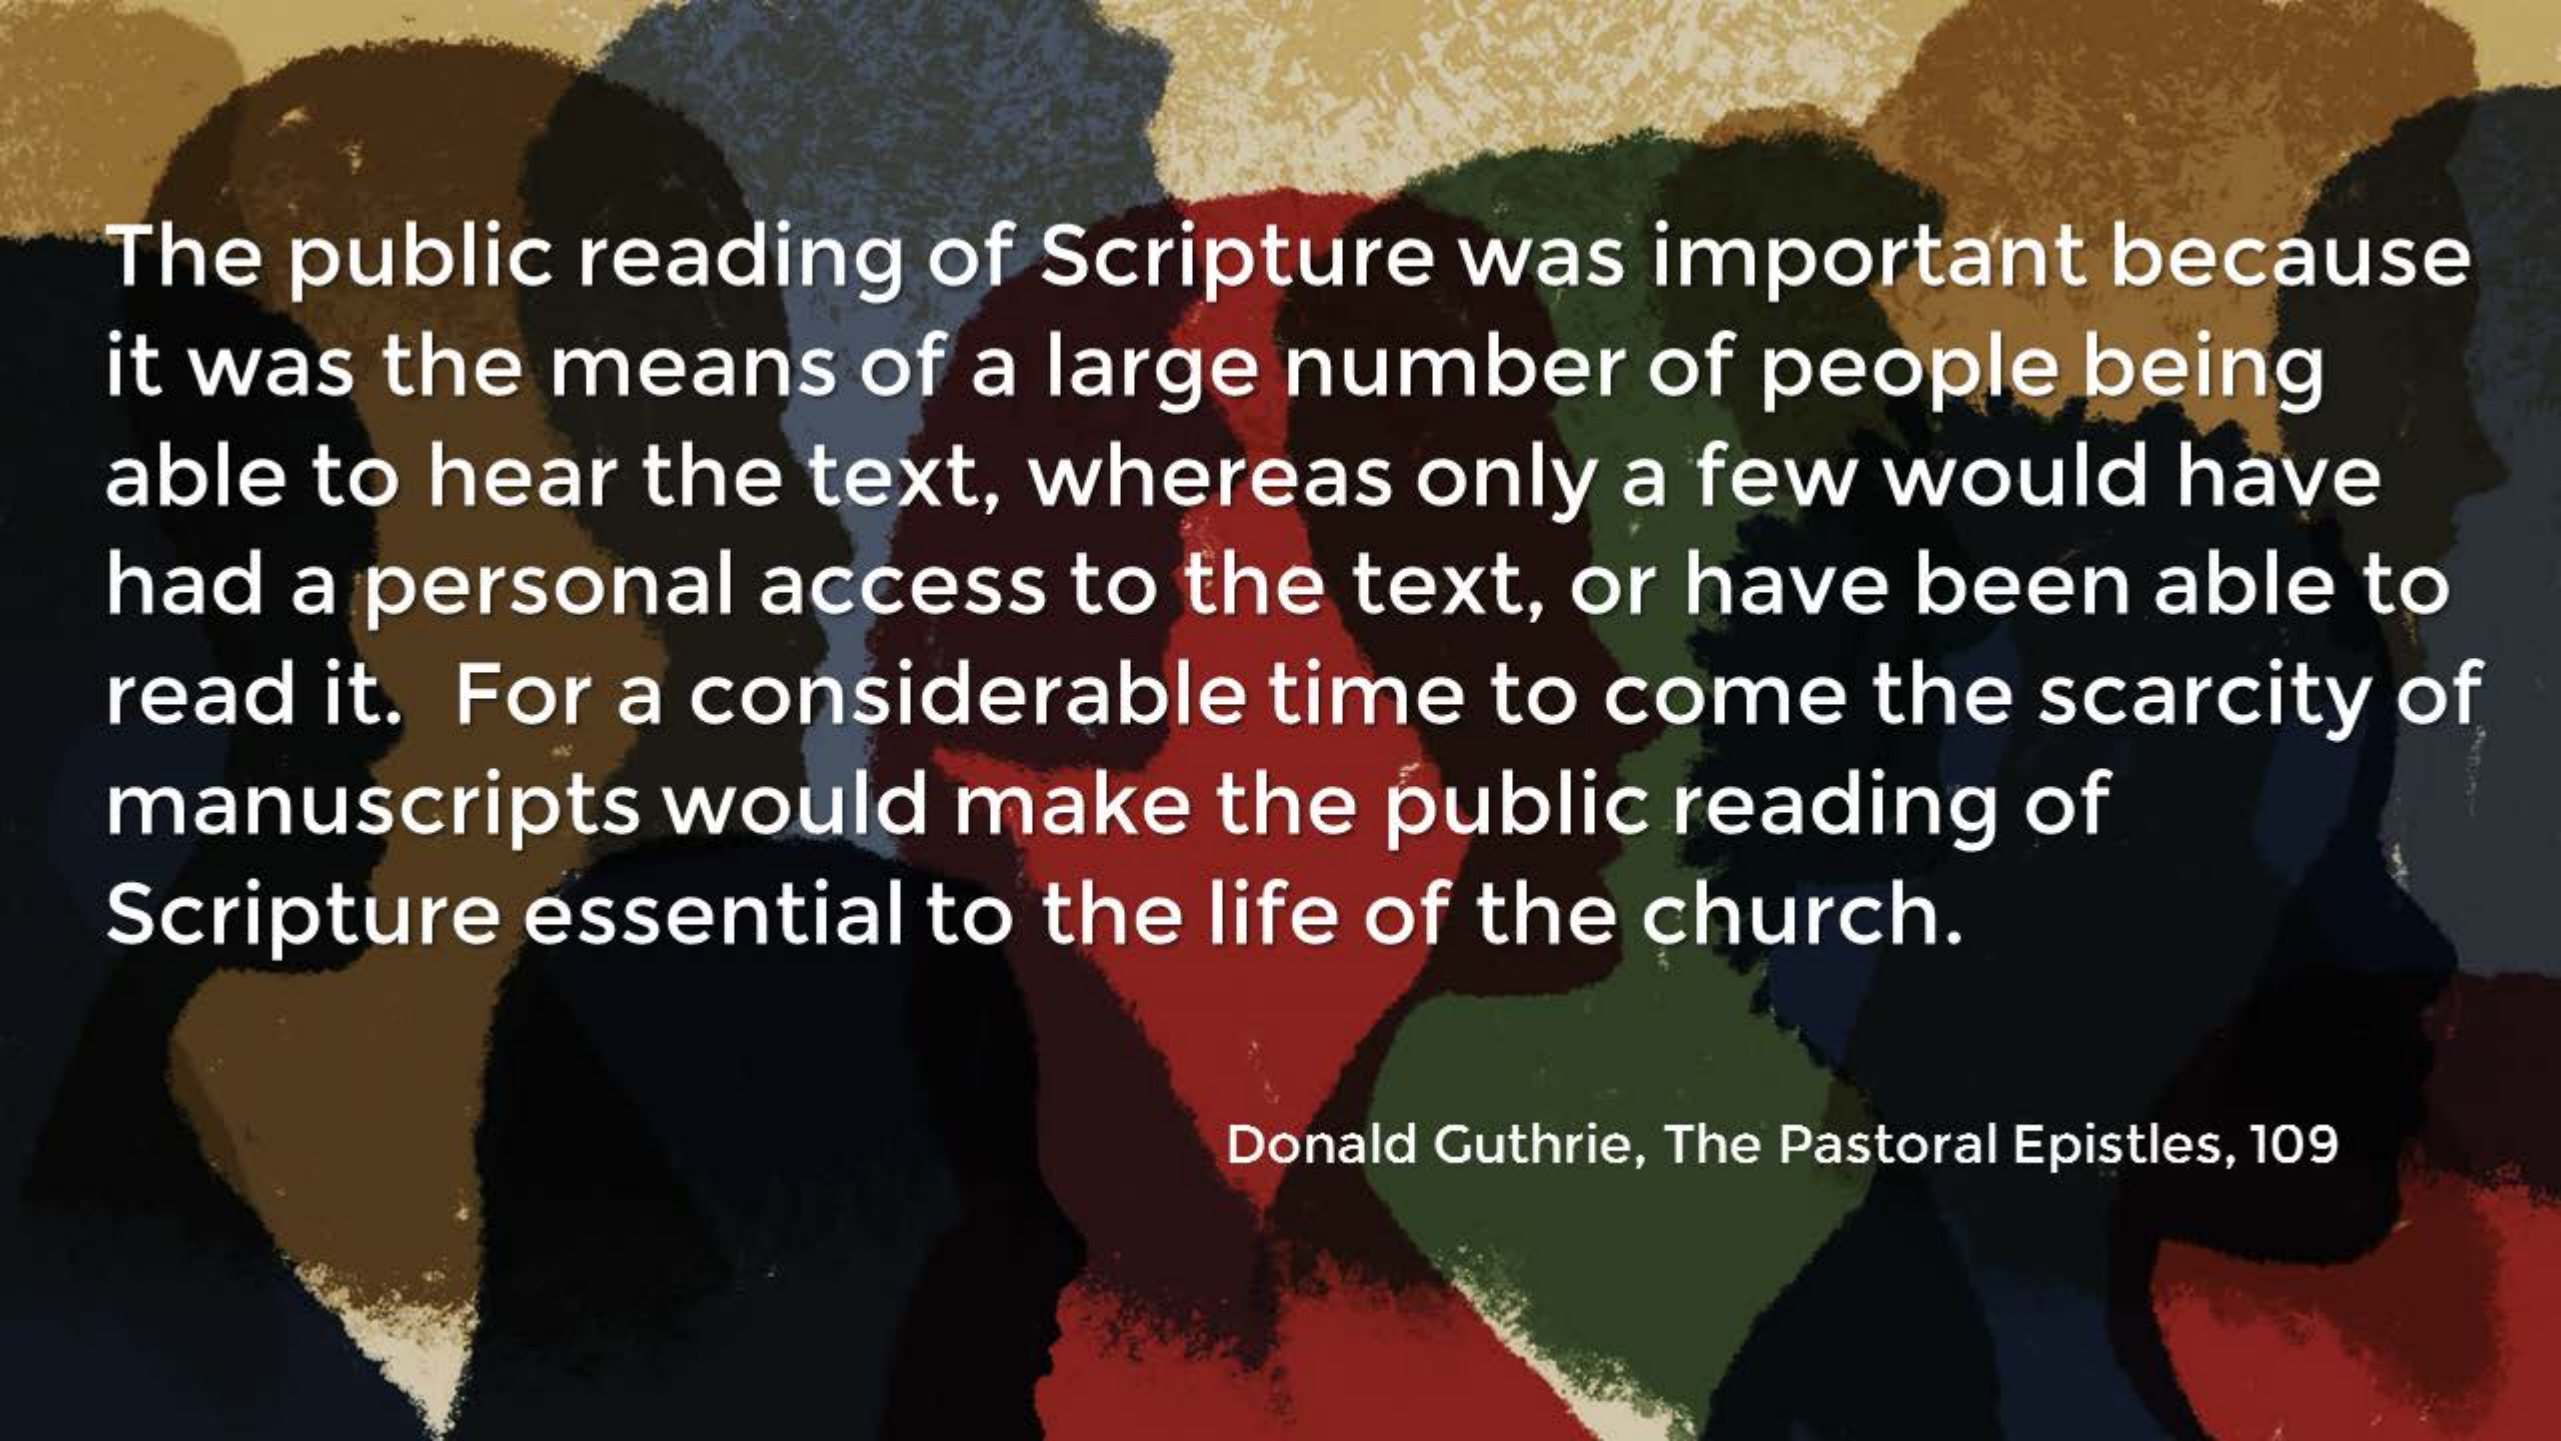

NAPOLEON

A LIFE

ANDREW ROBERTS

AUTHOR OF MASTERS AND COMMANDERS

The public reading of Scripture was important because it was the means of a large number of people being able to hear the text, whereas only a few would have had a personal access to the text, or have been able to read it. For a considerable time to come the scarcity of manuscripts would make the public reading of Scripture essential to the life of the church.

Donald Guthrie, The Pastoral Epistles, 109

WE TALKIN' BOUT PRACTICE!?

Showing off the Glory of Christ
in every area of life