

Sermon Notes

Philippians: Citizens of Joy
“The Battle for Joy (Part 1)” (Philippians 3:1-7)

1. The goal: joy in Christ

2. The destroyer of joy: confidence in the flesh

a) Contrasted with the true church of Jesus Christ

b) Compared with the background of Paul

3. The solution: count all things as loss in order to pursue Christ

Mid-Week Church Service – Information Meetings

This fall we will begin having evening services every Wednesday from 6:30 to 7:30 PM.

We invite you to join us during one of the following times to hear more about what these services will entail, to ask questions, and to find out how you can get involved!

August 26 | 9:15 AM

September 2 | 9:15 AM or immediately following the service

Mid-Week Church Service – Children’s Ministry (TODAY!)

We are planning on providing a children’s program for kids ages two-years-old to 5th grade during our mid-week service. If you are interested in finding out more about this program and getting involved, please speak with Caitlin Schwartz and plan on coming to the information meeting today immediately following the service.

DRT Team Sharetime – August 26

Our Disaster Relief Team will be sharing about their experience next Sunday (August 26) immediately following the service. Please join the team as they share testimonies, pictures, videos, and have a short time to answer some of your questions about their week!

Assisted hearing units are available for those who have difficulty hearing the service. Please see one of the ushers for the device.
