

Sermon Discussion Questions

1. What was one or two things that really jumped out to you?
2. Did you look at your life, who are the people or what are the events that are making the claim that they are the true kings of your world?
3. In what ways should God's ability to humble Nebuchadnezzar comfort you? Even in times when it is difficult to believe, how does gods control over all things in your life give you hope?
4. List the ways that you pretend to be the true king of the world. How does this chapter of Daniel stand as a rebuke to your pretensions?
5. In light of this morning's sermon and all your discussions, what practical steps do you need to be taking to be displaying Christ personally, as a family, as a missional community, and with the ministries of the church to your neighbors?
