idea, a spirit, or God through Christ.”

~ Harold Best
*Unceasing Worship, pg. 17

“To worship the Father ‘in spirit and truth’ clearly means much more than worship without necessary ties to a particular holy place (although it cannot mean any less.)”

~ D.A. Carson
*The Gospel According to John, pg. 226

“Our souls should be found under his influences and operations; we must devote our own spirits to, and employ them in, the service of God.”

~ Matthew Henry Commentary

“God is seeking those who will worship Him “in spirit and in truth”, not “in temperament and preference””.

The Spirit-Filled Church, pg. 71

II. Jesus Establishes Himself As The Cornerstone To Build On

“Many praise God in a limited way because they have never spent time getting to know Him or what He has done....

Worshippers must be preoccupied with the object of their worship.”

~ Terry Virgo

The Spirit-Filled Church, pg. 68

“If we were not allowed to speak of what we value and celebrate,
what we love and praise what we admire, our joy would not be full.”

~ John Piper
