THE GOSPEL AND GOOD WORKS

Lesson 13

Chris Jessee

May 3, 2015

Titus 2:11-14

Christ redeemed me in order that I might be zealous to do the good works I was created to do.

I. Christ Redeemed Me

II. Grace Makes Me Zealous For Good Works

“The activities of our everyday lives are not separate from the good works that God has called us to. They are themselves part of the good works that God created us for in Christ.

And, therefore, they have great meaning.”

~ Matt Perman

*What's Best Next: How The Gospel Transforms
The Way You Get Things Done*

“If you stop and do nothing until you can do everything, you will remain useless.”

~ Charles Spurgeon

“Indeed, gospel-motivated works do for the soul what food does for the body. They bring refreshment, enjoyment, blessing, and strengthening to the doer of the deeds, even more so to the receiver.”

~ Milton Vincent
