

I believe the Lord showed me a picture of the son of God High and lifted up with outstretched arms, standing on the praises of His people and in an instant He shown as the Lion of Judah roaring to the darkness and light burst forth and the praises of the saints shouted all the louder and the enemy cowered and shrunk back as the Lord of Hosts gave His battle cry.

I believe the Lord would say:

Prepare for the darkness to be pushed back and the light to come forth. For I have come to take back the land of My people. What is it that you fear? What is it that holds you captive? I tell you that on this day of My victory, I am declaring freedom for my people. So lift up your shouts of praise, for I am Worthy! Lift My name high, for I am Worthy! Watch as I strike fear into the heart of the darkness. Watch as he flees in terror. There are none who can stand before Me. Fix your eyes on me, declare my goodness, and know that I will be faithful to my people.
