Psalm 19

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

¹The heavens declare the glory of God,
and the sky above proclaims his handiwork.

²Day to day pours out speech, and night to night reveals knowledge.

³There is no speech, nor are there words, whose voice is not heard.

⁴Their voice goes out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world.

In them he has set a tent for the sun,

⁵which comes out like a bridegroom leaving his chamber,
and, like a strong man, runs its course with joy.

⁶Its rising is from the end of the heavens, and its circuit to the end of them,
and there is nothing hidden from its heat.

⁷The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul;
the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple;

⁸the precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart;
the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes;

⁹the fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever;
the rules of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

¹⁰More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold;
sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb.

¹¹Moreover, by them is your servant warned;
In keeping them there is great reward.

¹²Who can discern his errors? Declare me innocent from hidden faults.

¹³Keep back your servant also from presumptuous sins;
let them not have dominion over me!
Then I shall be blameless, and innocent of great transgression.

¹⁴Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight,
O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.
