TO AND FROM THE CONGREGATION

The month of December is now upon us, though the recent warmer temperatures could easily have fooled anyone. Yet indeed here we are in the final month of the year 2017. How thankful we can be that in a world full of change our Sovereign God is forever unchanging – that He remains the same in all his works and ways as He has revealed himself in Scripture. How blessed we are to give attention to those Scriptures again this Lord's day as the gospel of salvation is preached in our hearing. May we all have ears to hear and hearts that believe.

In the past week the Vegter family received the sad news of an uncle (Oom Wobbe) in South Africa passing on from this life. His death marked a quick end to a life of 71 years but which also included some major health struggles, and so it was indeed a release from pain and suffering. Nevertheless it is our prayer that God will comfort those who grieve with the sure knowledge and firm confidence of the gospel that all those who trust in Jesus Christ belong to him in life and in death.

Please remember those who are ailing or afflicted among us at this time. If a visit cannot be arranged, nothing should prevent us from at least remembering to pray for our brothers and sisters in need, especially the elderly who are experiencing the frailty of age. May God give his grace and Spirit to us as a community of believers to practice the type of love Christ commends in Matthew 25:40 (speaking of feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, welcoming the stranger, clothing the naked, and visiting the sick or those in prison) 'I tell you the truth, whatever you did for the least of my brothers, you did for me.'

You are reminded of the set of speeches that will be given by Dr. G.H. Visscher this week Friday and Saturday. What an opportunity for us in this church-community to listen to one of the professors of theology from our federational seminary speak to us on topics related to his field of expertise! May our attendance and interest in this event show how highly we esteem the work the seminary is doing to train and equip ministers who may then train and equip us all for the work of ministry in our daily lives and callings.

Over the next few Sundays as we approach Christmas day we will be exploring the prophecy of the minor prophet named Habakkuk. Little is known concretely about Habakkuk besides the fact that he wrote late in the seventh century BC, before the Babylonians had become a world-power which eventually invaded the kingdom of Judah in the year 605 BC. This was a time of moral corruption in Israel and judgment was pending. Interestingly, Habakkuk's prophecy stands out as unique among the prophets as he did not bring a message to Israel on God's behalf, but speaks directly with God asking him to give an account of his actions or lack thereof, and twice God obliges to answer. This book has been preserved ever since for the church throughout the ages to "listen in" to this important interaction and to learn to trust that the Lord will work out all things for the salvation of his chosen people.

May our good and gracious God be glorified by our worship and may His blessing be upon us in all we do in this coming week.

We have had our first get together meeting for the new year of Youth Group. We have set up a Calendar for all to see and we encourage Youth from both North and South to participate in our 2017/2018 year. "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control." We will be studying 2 of the Fruits at each meeting with the Host leading the meeting. Study material and questions will follow in the New Year.

Our plans for the year are as follows:

CONGREGATIONAL NEWS

“My mouth is filled with your praise, and with your glory all the day.” These words are from Psalm 71:8 and in that Psalm, the author brings out both the strength of youth and the frailty of age. But there is one thing that is consistent in our lives and that is the Lord’s goodness and presence. This is what allows us to praise him whatever our circumstances may be!

We rejoice together with our Br. Cameron Pol and Sr. Katie Van Beek who recently became engaged. We thank the Lord for his work in both of your lives in bringing you to this point and pray that he will grant you much joy also in these times of preparing for your wedding!

Br. Joe Van Assen could undergo his operation this past week and the Lord granted a successful surgery. All praise and thanks to God alone! Br. Van Assen shared with me that his recovery is also going good and he asked me to pass on his thanks and appreciation to the congregation for their thoughts and prayers regarding his operation as well. It is certainly a blessing that we may support and encourage one another in the communion of saints!

We are also thankful, together with our Sr. Anna Dejong, along with her husband Pieter and their family, that an opening has come up and she will be undergoing surgery on her back tomorrow, December 4, DV. What a blessing that our Heavenly Father has made this possible after a time of waiting! It is our prayer that he would guide the doctors who carry out this surgery and that it may be successful and our sister may have relief from her pain.

Br. Jeff Van Leeuwen received the disappointing news this past week that the cancer has spread into his lymph nodes. At the time of writing, the doctors were not sure exactly how far it has spread but our brother will be undergoing chemotherapy in the near future. It is our prayer that the Lord would provide our brother, along with his wife Jane and the rest of the family as well, the strength that they need so that also in this time of disappointment they may find their shelter in the shadow of the Almighty God. This coming weekend, the Home Mission committee has arranged for Dr. G.H. Visscher, Professor of New Testament from the Theological College in Hamilton to come out here and give a couple of speeches on the topic of the Reformation. Both speeches will be held at the church in Barrhead, with the first taking place on Friday evening at 8:00 and the second on Saturday morning at 10:00. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to join!

May the Lord bless us as we worship today and may our mouths be filled with his praise as we rejoice in the gospel of salvation that we may once again hear proclaimed.
