

Temptation #1: "If only
I had a little bit more,
then I'd be satisfied."

If you know Christ and know that he knows you...

1. Your bad things will turn out for good.
2. Your good things can never be taken away from you.
3. And the best things are yet to come.

- Jonathan Edwards

“He who has God and everything has no more than he who has God alone.”

- C. S. Lewis

“A Christian comes to contentment not so much by way of addition, but by way of subtraction.

The world says that you will find contentment when your possessions rise to the level of your desires.

But the Christian has another way of contentment. And that is that he can bring his desires down to the level of his possessions.”

- Jeremiah Burroughs

"You say, 'If I had a little more, I should be very satisfied.' You make a mistake. If you are not content with what you have, you would not be satisfied if it were doubled."

- Charles Spurgeon

Temptation #2:

"Because I have this much, I am..."

“The older you get, the more successful you get, the more money you make ... the greater the distance should be between how you could live and how you do live.”

- Tim Keller
