

Let the Redeemed of the LORD Tell Their Story!

Psalm 107

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
his faithful love endures forever.

Let the redeemed of the LORD proclaim that he has redeemed them from the power of the foe and gathered them from the lands—
from the east and the west,
from the north and the south.

- Psalm 107:1-3, CSB

“Whatever God does to us, he also intends to do through us.”

- Jeff Vandersteldt

“The fool goes on with his life without attending to how deeply God has loved him.”

- John Starke

We were lost, but now
we're found (4-9).

We were bound in chains, but now we're free (10-16).

We were addicted to self-harm, but now
we've been healed
(17-22).

“Fools in the Bible are not just regular sinners but those who become destructively self-absorbed and self-deceived. The picture is of those who have badly damaged their spiritual and physical health through foolish, self-indulgent lifestyles and addictions.”

- Tim and Kathy Keller

We were helplessly
battered by the storms
of life, but he became our haven (23-32).

“Lord, I confess my overconfidence about my ability to manage life through planning, knowing the right people, reading the right books. But then ‘out of the blue’ comes a storm and I am lost. Teach me how to depend on you and lean on you moment by moment. Without you I can do nothing. Amen.”

- Tim and Kathy Keller

Consider the LORD's acts of faithful love!
(33-43).

“Grace makes beauty out of ugly things.”

- Bono
