

From Gloom to Gratitude

Psalm 77

“Doubts are better put into plain speech than lying diffused and darkening, like poisonous mists, in the heart. A thought, be it good or bad, can be dealt with when it is made articulate.”

- Alexander Maclaren

Lesson #1: True faith wrestles in prayer with the painful realities of the present.

“A thing must be loved before it is loveable.”

- G. K. Chesterton

Lesson #2: True faith finds its resting place in what God has revealed throughout history, not in what I am experiencing at this present moment.
