Genesis 9:18-10:32 Small Group Questions

1. What do Noah and Adam have in common in Scripture? Why does the Holy Spirit record the parallels between them?
2. What do we learn from Noah's drunkenness and fall?
3. What was the sin of Ham? What does his sin reveal about his heart? How is this related to the promise of the Gospel in Gen. 3:15?
4. Why does God curse Canaan, the son of Ham?
5. What is significant about the descendants of Ham?
6. What is significant about the descendants of Shem?
7. What principle is being taught in the two lines--the line of Ham and the line of Shem?
8. What does God promise to do in the blessing pronounced on Shem?
9. What reveals the greatness of God's grace when we consider the promise to Shem and the first manifestation of that promise in the redemption of one of Ham's descendants.
