“A Mother’s Heart” – Book Study for Women

Janet Plank | Room 11

Being a mother is an important job, but one that can easily feel frustrating and unrewarding. Jean Fleming shares her hopes and frustrations about motherhood in A Mother’s Heart. She’ll show you how to distinguish between your role and God’s role in raising children, explain how to take a spiritual inventory of your child’s life, and teach you to pray effectively for your child. She’ll also help you be thankful for your child’s strengths and weaknesses.

The book is available to purchase for $10. Books may be picked up from the church office.

Romans: Justification – Part 7 (Romans 9:1-11:36)

Bruce Plank | Room 12

In chapters 1-8 Paul detailed his doctrine of salvation. In chapters 9-11 we see "Paul’s anguished wrestling with the problem of Israel’s unbelief." We will study at an unhurried pace in order to secure the rewards of this challenging book.

Ever Reforming

Mark Gilmore | Room 13

Oct 31 will be the 505th anniversary of the beginning of the Protestant Reformation. Christianity was powerfully impacted by the teachings and lives of the brave men who attempted to reform the Roman Catholic Church. The NT Church today should also be Ever Reforming, being transformed by the renewing of our mind (Rom 12:2).

Some of the subjects of study will be what led to the need for the Reformation; the good and the not-so-good of the Reformers and the Reformation; Reformed (Reformation) Theology today; and the role of Dispensational Theology in completing the Reformation.

Acts (Part I)

Tim Huxman | Room 14

We will study the first half of the Book of Acts this quarter, from the birth of the church to the spreading of the gospel to the Gentile world. We will cover roughly one chapter per week, studying the ministry of the Holy Spirit through the lives of the faithful servants God used to build Christ’s church.

Exodus

Nick Williams | Overflow

Slavery, salvation, guidance, promises, worship, faithfulness, and God’s presence are just a few of the themes of Exodus. Join us as we study these themes and consider what they reveal about God, His people, and the Messiah Jesus Christ.
