Conclusion

1. What spiritual reality does the one loaf communicate to us about Christ as we partake of it?
2. What spiritual reality does the one loaf communicate to us about ourselves as we partake together? What might it look like to live in light of this reality? How does it change the way we view ourselves? Others?
3. How would you define unity in the body of Christ? How important is unity to you? How important is it to God? How do we know this?
4. What is the basis of this unity?
5. Explain how Christ's death was not just for the salvation of individuals. What are the implications of that for how you view the church or other Christians that you consider different from yourself?
6. Why does Paul not tell us to become one? How are we to keep this unity that He died to accomplish?
7. Discuss your experience of celebrating the Lord's Table today with one loaf of bread being distributed to all.
