Introduction

The staff, pastors, and elders at Orlando Grace Church are fully committed to the shepherding of God's people that He has entrusted to us. Beyond the ministry of the Word, the administration of the sacraments, the worship of our God on Sunday mornings, we are concerned with the care of your soul outside the walls of 872 Maitland Ave.

However, there are limitations to how much we are equipped to assist in each area. God has made us all finite and sometimes our finitude is used to lead us to those who can help. This resource is our dedication to our people to show that we are truly concerned with caring for your souls, minds, and bodies. While we, as a church staff, may not be able to administer help in a certain area, this is our commitment to offer options toward those who can.

In the below document, you can see the various external resources that we would recommend to you given whatever circumstance you find yourself in. While not everything can be said about a given place, as much that can be said has been put below. Each entry below is tailored to the information provided by the institution. If you have any questions, please come to the staff and we will figure out a place best for you.

We truly do not want to "hand you off," rather this is an attempt to come alongside you as you go to those with more expertise, resources, etc. We trust in the ability of those whom God has given knowledge, ability, and training. We are willing and would love to come alongside you in this journey, so please reach out with any concerns. We are committed to keeping this document updated over time, as we learn of more needs and opportunities.

Endorsements

"Redeemer Counseling has been life-changing for my family. My husband and I have learned how to communicate, resolve conflict, and coach our children through their anger and anxiety. In 14 years of marriage, we have never experienced a greater sense of connection and peace in our household."

"Michael and Rachel's deep understanding of the Gospel and their commitment to seeing it lived out in the lives of their clients makes them unique. Not only will you find yourself growing and healing emotionally, but they will challenge you to greater spiritual depth, too. I've seen them grow to become top clinicians in the Orlando area.
