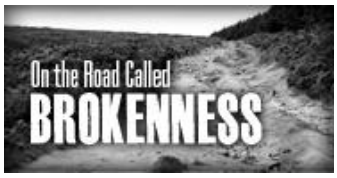
Our Big "R" Redeemer
Ruth 2.14-23
Week of February 2, 2014
Growth Group Questions



1. What's one new insight, thought, application or question you've had in our study of Ruth's story so far?

2. Have someone read this week's passage, Ruth 2.14-23, like they are watching this story unfold and describing it live over the radio or internet.

3. Kindness floods the fields of Boaz, Ruth 2.20. Point to the places in the story where we see Boaz' kindness to Ruth and Naomi.

    a. Kindness is one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit living in us each day. How would other people see kindness in your life? What are the differences between kindness and being nice?

    b. How do you see and experience God's kindness in your life?

    c. Boaz appears to be a small "r" redeemer as he shows his kindness to Ruth and Naomi. Who needs kindness in your life? Community? In what relationship or place in your life does God (the big "R" redeemer) want you to bring kindness, to be His hands and feet?

4. Think about Naomi from the beginning of our story until now. Try to get into her shoes—what must she have been feeling, thinking? We all walk roads of brokenness. What do we learn that is good, and not so good, from Naomi?
