

On the Road Called Redemption

Ruth 4.13-22

Week of February 23, 2014

Growth Group Questions

1. Take time before your study to read the book of Ruth in one sitting. Then, in your group, have several people share in reading the whole book aloud.
2. Looking back over the book and keeping your finger in the text, describe and contrast the road of brokenness walked by Naomi and Ruth and now the road of redemption they walk.
3. Fullness out of emptiness. Redemption out of brokenness. Read and ponder Ezekiel's vision of the valley of dry bones, Ezekiel 37.1-13. Share about how the Lord has (or is!) redeeming you from a time/season of emptiness, brokenness or dry bones in your life.
4. What will you take with you from this road called brokenness, our study of the book of Ruth? How is God changing you through the story of these people who lived in the days the judges ruled?
