Growth Group Questions

March 4, 2018

1. Talk about your earliest remembrance around the subject of divorce. What do you remember? What did you feel? What effects do you think it had on those directly, and indirectly, involved? (Remember others in your group may have had other experiences, some very personal and hurtful.)

2. Here's a "marriage builder" to explore together as a group: Ephesians 4.29-5.2.
 - a. Unpack the verses and ask God to help you obey.

 - b. Always before us in relationships is the option between ministry (building the other up) and manipulation (how can I get you to help me get what I want). How do you see that fleshed out in marriages in light of Ephesians 4.29?

3. Our redeemer is for us! God is for us! This is the only hope for sinners. In addition to Romans 8.31, discover other biblical passages that shout out this good news. Share them with your group and together thank Him for being for us.

4. Do you know someone struggling in their marriage, or suffering from loss, discouragement, illness or disappointment? Talk and pray about how you can be God's hands and feet this week sharing with them "God is for us". Listen for the Spirit's prompting and walk in obedience.
