1. Isaac's mom isn't mentioned in Genesis 22. What do you think she knew? What might she be experiencing as Abraham and Isaac head to Mount Moriah?
2. What was God really after in our story, a dead, sacrificed son and grieving parents? How does Hebrews 11.17-19 help us understand what God was up to? Bartjan told us the literal translation of the words "will provide" (used twice) in Genesis 22.14 is "sees to it." How does this help us understand God's purposes in these events?
3. How do we see the Gospel of Jesus foreshadowed in Genesis 22? Think about John 3.16. Look at Romans 8.31-34 in this same light. Knowing our Heavenly Father gave His one and only Son as a sacrifice in our place, what confidences and sure hopes in God do we now have (you may want to continue reading through verse 39)? What do you not need to fear because of the Good News of Jesus?
