1. Think about your prayers. What are some of the most meaningful experiences you have had praying with the Lord? What was going in your life? Where were you? What do you think contributed to the experience?
2. How do our prayers (or lack thereof) reveal the temperature of our heart?
3. A Christian friend of yours is honestly struggling with this truth that God does everything for His glory (John 17.1-5, Isaiah 48.9-11, Psalm 106.7-8, etc.). It seems strange, even egotistical to them. How would you help them understand?
4. We bring glory to God by abiding in Him and bearing much fruit (John 15.5-17). Some of this fruit shows up in how we live with those in our neighborhoods and families who don't yet know Jesus, read Matthew 5.14-16. How does such fruit bring glory to God? What's a practical way you can bear new fruit before someone who doesn't yet know Jesus?
