

Work Matters Forever
Matthew 25.14-30, Isaiah 65.17-25
Message Notes
May 25, 2014

1. A Redemptive Rebuilding Project: Greensburg, Kansas

We're working in an already-but-not-yet world

2. The Future of Work

Matthew 25.14-30

Grace is not opposed to effort, it's opposed to earning.

Waiting for a voice from on high? Just do something!

Our work now will determine our work then.

Our work now will powerfully affect our joy then.

3. Jesus' Redemptive Rebuilding Project: The New Heavens and New Earth

Isaiah 65.17-25

If everything will be annihilated, our work now is meaningless.

But if there is continuity between our already-but-not-yet world and the new world-to-come, our work now matters forever!

Previously in "Work Matters":

1. Work is good because God works
2. We are created with work in mind
3. Work is broader than a paying job
4. Work is not the curse, but the wheels of work have come off
5. Our working is redeemed by growing in Jesus' mindset
6. All work can be spiritual work
