

WE ARE WAITING, WAITING HERE

1. For the vi - sion of the Bride-groom waits the well - be - lov - ed bride,
2. For the com - ing of the Bride-groom, whom, though yet un - seen we love,
3. For the light be - yond the dark - ness, when the reign of sin is done,
4. For the day of end - ed bat - tle, for the vic - tor's palm and crown,

Sev - ered on - ly for a sea - son from her Well - be - lov - ed's side.
For the King of saints, re - turn - ing in His glo - ry from a - bove;
When the storm has ceased its rag - ing, and the ha - ven has been won;
For the day of rec - og - ni - tion, when the King shall claim His own;

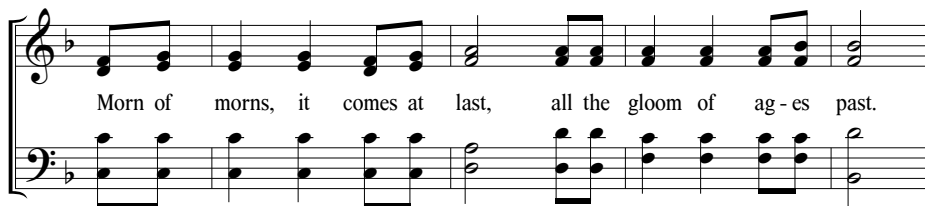

For the hour when morn as - cen - deth, and the shad - ows dis - ap - pear,
For the shout that shakes the pris - on, for the trum - pet loud and clear,
For the joy be - yond the sor - row, joy of the e - ter - nal year,
For the day when He who loved her shall in glo - ry re - ap - pear,

For the signs of heav - 'nly glo - ry, we are wait - ing, wait - ing here!
For the voice of the arch - an - gel, we are wait - ing, wait - ing here!
For the res - ur - rec - tion splen - dor, we are wait - ing, wait - ing here!
For the day of rev - e - la - tion, we are wait - ing, wait - ing here!

Words: Horatius Bonar
Music: Gary Brumley

WE ARE WAITING, WAITING HERE

Chorus

Morn of morns, it comes at last, all the gloom of ag-es past.

For the day of days the bright-est We are wait-ing, wait-ing here!

opt. ending

Weare wait-ing, wait-ing, wait-ing, (we are) wait-ing here.