

The Welfare of the Household of God

Deuteronomy 21-25

Theme: God, who is committed to promoting the welfare of His covenant people, also obligates them to do the same, by working for the good of their neighbor and by protecting the community from threats that would defile it.

- I. Protect your neighbor's rights and dignity

- II. Preserve your identity as God's special people
 - A. A people set apart and distinct

 - B. A people of purity
 - 1. Committed to sexual purity

 - 2. Free of all defilement

- III. Promote the welfare of the weak