We Enter into God's Presence

■ Call to Worship

Psalm 135:1–3

Leader: Praise the Lord! Praise the name of the Lord, give praise, O servants of the Lord, who stand in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God!

All: Praise the Lord, for the Lord is good; sing to his name, for it is pleasant!

■ Invocation

■ Song of Adoration

Arise, My Soul, Arise

Confession of Sin

All: Almighty God, we confess that we have not loved our neighbor as much as we love ourselves. We have promoted our own interests and we have sought our own comfort at the expense of other people's needs. You were hungry and we did not feed you. You were a stranger and we did not welcome you. Forgive us for our selfishness and give us grace to love one another as our Lord Jesus Christ has loved us. Holy Spirit, work in us to produce good fruit so that others may taste and see that our God is good.

Silent Confession

■ Assurance of Pardon

Psalm 103:8–12

Leader: The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us.

Hymn 347

We Unite as God's People

■ Confession of Faith

Heidelberg Catechism, Q. 86

Leader: Since we are delivered from our misery, merely of grace, through Christ, without any merit of ours, why must we still do good works?

All: Because Christ, having redeemed and delivered us by his blood, also renews us by his Holy Spirit, after his own image; that so we may testify, by the whole of our conduct, our gratitude to God for his blessings, and that he may be praised by us; also, that every one may be assured in himself of his faith, by the fruits thereof; and that, by our godly conversation others may be gained to Christ.
