Pray for RMPC Elder: Dave Jorg

Please pray for upcoming transitions for our family. Especially we pray for safety and a smooth transition for Trevor and his family as they move from North Carolina to Salt Lake City. Give Dave and Trevor safety as they move everything across the country this week (March 29-April 2). We also pray that they will find a good a church and good health care as they are expecting baby number two at the end of June.

We Respond to God's Word

The Lord's Supper

We welcome all baptized Christians to receive Holy Communion with us if you actively trust in Jesus Christ as Savior, willingly forsake your sin, and are a member of a congregation that proclaims the gospel. If you are not able to receive Communion, please use this time to meditate on the following prayer.

Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

Gluten-free wafers are available at the back of the sanctuary in a plate labeled gluten-free.

Your Miraculous Body

Genesis 1:26-31, 2:5-8, 2:15-25; Psalm 139:13-16

Main point: God formed your body in your mother's womb as a beautiful and complex object of redemption, body and soul.

1. The pinnacle of creation: image bearer

2. Made in the image of God

3. Jesus and the image of God

Conclusion:

Questions to consider: Has your view of your body shaped or affected your relationship with God? With others? Is discounting or hating your body something you have engaged in? Given that God has created your body specifically and specially for you, how does God want that to change?
