Pray for RMPC Elder: Rob Matte

We are thankful for the continued blessings in our life. Kathy has been able to maintain an active lifestyle despite her cancer. Rob is appreciative of the continued opportunity to tutor students at Pima Community College. Pray that our sons would come to know Christ's saving grace. We are humbled by God's abiding love for us.

We Respond to God's Word

The Lord’s Supper

We welcome all baptized Christians to receive Holy Communion with us if you actively trust in Jesus Christ as Savior, willingly forsake your sin, and are a member of a congregation that proclaims the gospel. If you are not able to receive Communion, please use this time to meditate on the following prayer.

Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

Gluten-free wafers are available at the back of the sanctuary in a plate labeled gluten-free.

Your Worshipping Body

Psalm 139:13-16

Main point: God formed your body in your mother’s womb as a beautiful and complex object of redemption, body and soul.

- 1. The worshiping body: the worshiper
- 2. The worshiping body: the congregation

Conclusion:

Questions to consider: Is your body ready for worship on Sunday morning? How is your body involved in worship? How does your body affect the worship of those worshiping near you? Have you passed on to the next generation the marvelous work Christ’s body did to redeem your body?
