We Enter into God's Presence

■ Call to Worship

Luke 5:31–32

Leader: And Jesus answered them, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance.”

■ Invocation

■ Song of Adoration

Sing, Choirs of New Jerusalem

Hymn 271

Confession of Sin

All: Sovereign Lord, you are the Creator of all people, for you have made them and you sustain them. You are the Father of those who know, love and honor you, who find your yoke easy, your burden light, your work honorable, and your commandments wonderful. But how little your goodness has affected me! How negligent have I been in doing good to others! Help me to hate and forsake every false way, to bridle my tongue, to guard my heart, to watch and pray against temptation, to put sin to death, and to be concerned for the salvation of others. Have mercy on me, and may your goodness bring me to repentance.

Silent Confession

■ Assurance of Pardon

Romans 3:23–26

Leader: For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

■ Song of Praise

■ Confession of Faith

2 Corinthians 4:5–6

All: For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

The Lord's Supper

Rincon Mountain Presbyterian Church welcomes all baptized Christians who actively trust in Jesus Christ for salvation, who are willing to forsake their sin, and who are members of congregations that proclaim the gospel to receive the Holy Communion with us. If you are not able to receive Communion, please use this time to meditate on the following prayer.

Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

(Please wait to partake of the elements until all have been served.)

We use wine in communion. If for reasons of health or conscience, you would like grape juice, it is also provided. Wine is in the purple cup and grape juice is in the clear cup. Gluten-free wafers are available for those who need them. They are at the back of the church at the sanctuary entrance in a plate labeled gluten-free.
