Exodus 20:1-17

We Respond to God's Word

The Lord's Supper

We welcome all baptized Christians to receive Holy Communion with us if you actively trust in Jesus Christ as Savior, willingly forsake your sin, and are a member of a congregation that proclaims the gospel. If you are not able to receive Communion, please use this time to meditate on the following prayer.

Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

Gluten-free wafers are available at the back of the sanctuary in a plate labeled gluten-free.

Enter His Rest

Exodus 20:1-17

Main point: God has given us a day that we are to keep holy.

1. Why we must keep a day holy

2. How we keep a day holy

Conclusion:

Questions to consider: Are you getting enough rest? Are you resting in what Jesus has done to deliver you from slavery and are you feasting on his goodness?
