For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

We Enter into God's Presence

■ Call to Worship

Psalm 34:8–10

Leader: Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good! Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him! Oh, fear the Lord, you his saints, for those who fear him have no lack! The young lions suffer want and hunger; but those who seek the Lord lack no good thing.

■ Invocation

■ Song of Adoration

O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing

Hymn 164

Confession of Sin

Fifth Commandment

All: O God, whom in Christ, we call our dear Father,

Next to yourself, you have given us father and mother; and not only these, but all authorities are given by You for our good. The government, the church, employers: all of these authorities are gracious gifts from You to guide and sustain our lives.

And yet, Father, we do not see their authority as a blessing, but a curse. We don't see their authority as a help, but as a threat. And for that, we all too often rebel and prefer our own ways.

Father, for this evil, forgive us. Help us to see all authority as given from Your hand. Help us to see all submission to authority as ultimately submission to You, our gracious Father. We ask this in the name of Your Son, Jesus Christ.

Sung Confession

■ Assurance of Pardon

Philippians 2:5–8

Leader: Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

We Respond to God's Word

The Lord's Supper

Rincon Mountain Presbyterian Church welcomes all baptized Christians who actively trust in Jesus Christ for salvation, who are willing to forsake their sin, and who are members of congregations that proclaim the gospel to receive the Holy Communion with us. If you are not able to receive Communion, please use this time to meditate on the following prayer.

Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

(Please wait to partake of the elements until all have been served.)

We use wine in communion. If for reasons of health or conscience, you would like grape juice, it is also provided. Wine is in the purple cup and grape juice is in the clear cup. Gluten-free wafers are available for those who need them. They are at the back of the church at the sanctuary entrance in a plate labeled gluten-free.
