We Respond to God's Word

The Lord’s Supper

We welcome all baptized Christians to receive Holy Communion with us if you actively trust in Jesus Christ as Savior, willingly forsake your sin, and are a member of a congregation that proclaims the gospel. If you are not able to receive Communion, please use this time to meditate on the following prayer.

Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

Gluten-free wafers are available at the back of the sanctuary in a plate labeled gluten-free.

What is the Greatest Commandment?

Matthew 22:34-40

Main Point: Love is the beginning point of our relationship with our neighbor.

I. Love for neighbor in context

II. Love for neighbor reflects love for self

III. Love for neighbor includes our brother

IV. Love for neighbor includes the stranger

Conclusion:

Questions to consider: Do you know the love that God has for you though you were not only a stranger, but an enemy? Do you express that same depth of love to those around you?
