Confession of Sin/Man's Great End

Dave Jorg

LORD OF ALL BEING,

There is one thing that deserves my greatest care and calls forth my ardent desires; that is, that I may answer the great purpose for which I am made — to glorify you who has given me being, and to do all the good I can for my fellow men. Truly, life is not worth having if it not be made fit for this noble purpose. Yet, Lord, how little do we consider this thought! We most often seem to live for ourselves, without much or any regard for your glory or for the good of others. We earnestly desire and eagerly pursue the riches, honors, and pleasures of this life, as if we supposed that wealth, greatness or entertainment could make our souls happy.

But what false and delusive dreams these are! And how miserable we will be who sleep in them, for all our happiness consists in loving you and being holy as you are holy. Help us to know continually that there can be no true happiness, no fulfilling of your purpose for us, apart from a life lived in and for the Son of your love, Jesus Christ.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon/Colossians 1:21-22

Dave Jorg

Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation.
