Greeting

Call to Worship/Ps. 84

Pastor Phil Kruis

Leader:

How lovely is your dwelling place, O Lord of hosts!

All:

My soul longs, yes, faints for the courts of the Lord; my heart and flesh sing for joy to the living God.

Leader:

Even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, at your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

All:

Blessed are those who dwell in your house, ever singing your praise!

Confession of Sin/Man's Great End

Lucas Hattenberger

All:

There is one thing that deserves my greatest care, that calls forth my ardent desires, that is, that I may answer the great end for which I am made — to glorify You who has given me being, and to do all the good I can for my fellow men; life is not worth having if not for this noble purpose.

Yet, Lord, how little is this the thought of mankind! Most men seem to live for themselves, without much or any regard for thy glory, or for the good of others.

But, alas, what false delusive dreams are these! for all our happiness consists in loving thee, and being holy as thou art holy.

Help me to know continually that there can be no true happiness, no fulfilling of thy purpose for me, apart from a life lived in and for the Son of thy love.

Assurance of Pardon/2 Cor. 5:17-21

Lucas Hattenberger

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

Confession of Faith/WSC Q&A #93, 96-97

Pastor Mark Lauterbach

Q93. Which are the sacraments of the New Testament?

A93. The sacraments of the New Testament are, two only, Baptism, and the Lord's Supper, and these take the place of Circumcision and the Passover in the Old Testament.

Q96. What is the Lord's Supper?

A96. The Lord's Supper is a sacrament in which, by giving and receiving bread and wine according to Christ's appointment, his death is proclaimed, and those who receive rightly are by faith (and not by the mouth in a physical manner) made partakers of his body and blood, with all his benefits, to their spiritual nourishment and growth in grace.

Q97. What is required to receive rightly the Lord's Supper?

A97. It is required of those who would receive rightly the Lord's Supper, that they examine themselves as to their knowledge of the meaning and object of this sacrament, their faith to feed upon Christ, and their repentance, love and new obedience; for coming in an unworthy manner would bring judgement on themselves.
