Call to Worship/Ps. 100

Pastor Phil Kruis

Leader:

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth! Serve the Lord with gladness! Come into his presence with singing!

All:

Know that the Lord, he is God! It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Leader:

Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name!

All:

For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

Confession of Sin/Lutheran Service, setting 1

Lucas Hattenberger

All:

Most merciful God,

We confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We justly deserve Your present and eternal punishment.

For the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways to the glory of Your holy name. Amen.

Silent Reflection

Assurance of Pardon/John 1:11-13

Lucas Hattenberger

He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

In Christ Alone; We Abide, We Abide in You.

Confession of Faith/Heidelberg Q&A #86

Pastor Mark Lauterbach

Q86. Since we have been delivered from our misery by grace through Christ without any merit of our own, why then should we do good works?

A86. Because Christ, having redeemed us by his blood, is also restoring us by his Spirit into his image, so that with our whole lives we may show that we are thankful to God for his benefits, so that he may be praised through us, so that we may be assured of our faith by its fruits, and so that by our godly living our neighbors may be won over to Christ.
