Call to Worship/Ps. 105

Pastor Mark Lauterbach

Leader:

Oh give thanks to the Lord; call upon his name; make known his deeds among the peoples! Sing to him, sing praises to him; tell of all his wondrous works!

All:

Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice!

Leader:

Seek the Lord and his strength; seek his presence continually!

All:

Remember the wondrous works that he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he uttered, O offspring of Abraham, his servant, children of Jacob, his chosen ones!

Confession of Sin/6th Commandment

Lucas Hattenberger

All:

Father, in this command, you do not simply forbid murder, but also everything that may lead to it.

And all of us, although we may not actually commit it physically, nevertheless murder others in our hearts. We think, say, and even wish horrible things about and for others. If our thoughts were exposed, people would be shocked at the violence hidden within.

Father, help us to see the murderousness within. Help us to see that we are guilty of violence even before it is committed. Help us to see, so that we might be forgiven and renewed through the Holy Spirit. We pray this in the name of your Son, amen.

Silent Reflection

Assurance of Pardon/Rom. 5:8-9

Lucas Hattenberger

God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God.

Confession of Faith/WSC Q&A #68-69

Lucas Hattenberger

Q68. What is required in the sixth commandment?

A68. The sixth commandment requires all lawful endeavours to preserve our own life and the life of others.

Q69. What is forbidden in the sixth commandment?

A69. The sixth commandment forbids us to take our own life or to take unjustly the life of our neighbour, or anything tending to these ends.
