Confession of Sin/10th Commandment

Lucas Hattenberger

All:

Our first parents coveted the forbidden fruit and they coveted the exalted wisdom and stature of God. We are just like our first parents. We are prone to be dissatisfied with our possessions, with our spouses, with our coworkers, with our friends, with our bodies and with our allotted situations in life.

So we envy the situations of others, and we grumble at the good that they enjoy. Lord, we lack contentment! We need your grace, in order that we might turn away from the idolatry of our covetous hearts. Renew us by the power of your gracious Spirit and conform us to the righteous image of Christ.

We pray this is the name of your Son, Amen.

Assurance of Pardon/John 3:16

Lucas Hattenberger

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

Confession of Faith/WSC Q&A #80-81

Lucas Hattenberger

Q80. What is required in the tenth commandment?

A80. The tenth commandment requires full contentment with our own condition, and a right and charitable attitude toward our neighbour and all that is his.

Q81. What is forbidden in the tenth commandment?

A81. The tenth commandment forbids all discontent with our own state; envying and grieving at the good of our neighbour, together with all ungoverned longings and desires for things that belong to him.
