Time for Silent Reflection

Call to Worship/Ps 103:8-11

Pastor Phil Kruis

Leader: The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

All: He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever.

Leader: He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities.

All: For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him.

Confession of Sin/Ps. 6

Lucas Hattenberger

Leader: O Lord, rebuke me not in your anger, nor discipline me in your wrath.

All: Be gracious to me, O Lord, for I am languishing; heal me, O Lord, for my bones are troubled.

Leader: My soul also is greatly troubled. But you, O Lord—how long?

All: Turn, O Lord, deliver my life; save me for the sake of your steadfast love. For in death there is no remembrance of you; in Sheol who will give you praise?

Leader: I am weary with my moaning; every night I flood my bed with tears; O I drench my couch with my weeping. My eye wastes away because of grief; it grows weak because of all my foes.

All: Depart from me, all you workers of evil, for the Lord has heard the sound of my weeping. The Lord has heard my plea; the Lord accepts my prayer. All my enemies shall be ashamed and greatly troubled; they shall turn back and be put to shame in a moment.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon/Gal. 3:10-14

Lucas Hattenberger

Leader: For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, "Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them." Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for "The righteous shall live by faith." But the law is not of faith, rather "The one who does them shall live by them." Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree"— so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith.
