

Spiritual Transformation in You Leads to Gospel Saturation in Your World Matthew 5:10-16

Scott Lehr

Read Matthew 5:1-16. Look for characteristics and traits of a life surrendered to Jesus.

Read Matthew 5:10-16 again. What does Jesus say about a life that is transformed?

God calls us to intimate relationship with Him, to BE His child and be transformed by Him.

Be _____ for _____.

Have you ever been truly ridiculed or persecuted for being a follower of Jesus?

As you grow in Christ, do you look more like Jesus in the way you live – your attitude, actions, desires, purity of heart, mind and life, your decisions, character – that is opposed to the standards of the world?

What area of your life do you need to allow God more freedom to work and conform?

Be _____ God _____ you to _____.

Christianity is not a performance-based religion it is an identity-based relationship. Where do you find your identity, purpose or value? What does God say about you and how do you need to find your identity in Christ?

Be _____ about your Gospel _____.

In a world that opposes Christ, will you show them Christ? How do others see Jesus when they see you? What areas of your life do you need to allow Jesus to work more?
