

Walk Worthy Of Your Calling

Ephesians 4:1-16

Pastor Scott Lehr

1. You are commanded to _____ conducive to your _____.

2. You are commanded to _____ with the _____ you've been _____.

For Small Group discussion & application this week:

Based on your personal time in Ephesians 4:1-16 this week, what did God teach you?

Look again at the character qualities Paul urges us to take on in 4:2. How can these traits help you fulfill the command in 4:3?

What are the chief signs of spiritual maturity (13-15) and immaturity (14) in the faith?

Look again at Paul's metaphor for the church in verses 15-16. What does this description suggest to you about your own spiritual growth? How do you see your role in the body?

Is your walk with Christ conducive to the calling God has on your life?

Looking ahead: Sunday, October 31, take a closer look at Ephesians 4:17-32.

Read this passage each day this week, looking for something different each day (a key word, new thought about God, Jesus or the Holy Spirit, a promise to claim, a sin to confess) underline, highlight or make notes in your bible or Scripture Journal.

As you read, consider how Paul contrasts the life of the Gentile (unbeliever) with that of a true believer throughout these verses?

Paul speaks of a spiritual condition known as hardness of heart (v. 18). What are the effects of this condition (vv. 17-19)?

Look for things that Paul tells us to put off, or what he says to put on. What reason does he give for doing these things? What do you need to put on or put off?
