- Proverbs 22:15 Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child; The rod of discipline will remove it far from him.*

Week 19 Homework

Proverbs 22:1-16

My friend, this homework is not for cramming. To get the most out of this study you need to seek to work on it a little bit every day. Keep in mind that you will get out of it what you put into it. So, invest deeply and be deeply blessed by an increase in the wisdom of our Savior!

This week's homework and passage are shorter. I HIGHLY suggest you get a head start on Lesson 20- 30 Sayings of the Wise—and not try to do it all next week.

1. Read Proverbs 22:1-16 each day this week.
2. Work each day this week on memorizing Proverbs 22:6, 15, 29:15
3. Mark your key words as you encounter them in the text of Chapter 22:1-16 (see bookmark.)

7. According to Hebrews 12 what should our motivation of guiding, teaching, training and disciplining children should be?

This culture believes often in ignoring children's behavior or pampering their desires and wills in the name of "children's rights." Or, in other scenarios, parents will use plenty of other disciplines but not the rod. What truth should we speak to those who do not verbally or physically correct or train their children? By whose authority is this true?

8. Work on your topical index with the verses in Chapter 22:1-16 in your notebook or on notebook paper if you aren't doing Hidden Treasures.

Optional Hidden Treasures Homework:

- As you read Proverbs chapter 22:1-16 every day this week, read it to your children at least 3 times. Perhaps, you should get a jump start on the 30 saying of the wise, too, Proverbs 22:17-24:22
Make copies for your kids to color as you read or put it on display for them to look at while you read and have them listen for the words that depict the drawing.
