

Lesson 27

Proverbs 1-31

Solomon's Book of Wisdom

1. Write out the hermeneutical key to Proverbs again below-Proverbs 1:7:
  - A. What did you know about the fear of the Lord before this study?
  - B. What wisdom have you gained in learning about and growing in the fear of the Lord this year?
2. We discussed a myriad of subjects throughout proverbs and Lord Willing, you were able to make a topical index for yourself. Choose two of those topics that have impacted you the most. Write at least one Proverbs reference below next to each number and write out all the things God taught you about it this year!

Topic:            Reference verse:            What God taught me from His word:

2.

3. List out some practical applications of wisdom principles that you have added to your life as you studied Proverbs. Examples should show how you are walking in the path of wisdom differently than a year ago in your relationships, or view of God or with your tongue, etc.

4. If you were asked to teach a group of children or young ladies something from Proverbs what would you teach? List scriptures, main points and examples below. Get a head start for the future now Titus women!

5. O the fool! Have we not peered into God's word this year and seen foolishness revealed back in the mirror of its pages! Go back through your notes and homework and write down what you learned the most about the fool:
  - A. What foolishness did you see in your own life currently?

  - B. Have you been able to do anything about that? What steps have you taken to eradicate this foolishness in your walk that you may be a wise woman of God?

6. What fresh insights did you learn from Proverbs 31?

What points from this chapter can you encourage your friends with as they share with you about their lives, or marriages, or future plans?

7. How will you walk in a manner worthy of Christ differently now that you've studied wisdom vs the fool,, the excellent wife vs. the adulteress or contentious wife, the righteous vs the wicked, the sluggard vs the diligent, the teachable vs the "nabal" fool.

8. What was your favorite part of studying Proverbs this year?

*Come prepared to discuss and share ALOUD this week at Proverbs study. Your examples may encourage others. Your insights may spur another on. Put aside any fear of man of having “the wrong answer” in public and come humbly to share what God has taught you for His glory and our encouragement!
